Georgia Rotary Student Program Weekend 2017

GRSP Weekend: Friday January 13th - Sunday January 15th

Dunwoody Rotarians! Please welcome the 71st International scholarship class to the GRSP weekend hosted at Oglethorpe University. The students will take part in enriching experiences and events that foster and promote world peace.

Dunwoody Rotarian Larry Hart, a certified instructor in Fierce Conversations will have a seminar with the students. There will be a "Shark Tank" type event with the Rotaract club. This year the students will journey to the new Center for Civil and Human Rights which highlights three different exhibits - The American Civil Rights Movement, The Global Human Rights Movement and the Morehouse College Martin Luther King, Jr. Collection Voice to the Voiceless.

We are expecting a great turnout of 50 Students! Do you have a guest bed or two? We need more beds to place students in! The commitment is pretty easy, they would stay Friday and Saturday night and you would feed them breakfast each morning and drive them to/from Oglethorpe each day.

If interested in hosting a student contact Louise Barden 404-423-8226 or lbarden@comcast.net for more information.

The Rotary Club of Dunwoody provided lunch and snacks to approximately 75 military personnel and their families at the USO at Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport yesterday. With a major donation of food and water by Rotarian Charlie Augello and the East 58th Street Market and fruit from Mike Jardina, we served lunch and, most importantly, got to thank our military men, women and their families for their service to our country. Rotarians who participated yesterday were, Geoff Roper, Anne Glenn and her husband Clark, Rick Otness, Harvey Rosenzweig and his wife Natine, George Stewart and his wife Amy, Bob Freeman and his wife Grace and their sons, and Larry Domenico and his daughter Katie.

Our 2017 dates with the USO are Friday, April 7 and Friday, December 1. Mark your calendars and join us next time for this very gratifying project.
