Thomasville Entertainment Foundation

Our speaker for Thursday, July 9 is Rick Ivey, executive/artistic director of the Thomasville Entertainment Foundation (TEF). He'll be sharing highlights from the upcoming 2026-2027 season.

Founded in 1937, TEF is a volunteer-led, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization serving the South Georgia/North Florida region. The organization's work includes:

- An annual concert series featuring internationally celebrated artists in opera, theater, dance, classical music, jazz and other forms of entertainment
- Concerts, classes and workshops for area students
- Scholarships and travel grants for outstanding young musicians

Members and guests are invited to hear from Rick Ivey and learn more about TEF's programs and impact in the region.

Rotary Fact

In 1896, Silvester Schiele had loaned money to a friend from whom he had been unable to collect. There was a young lawyer who frequently passed by his office, so one day Silvester asked him for advice on how to collect. Thus, the beginning of a friendship with Paul Harris, the attorney, led to the founding of the Rotary Club of Chicago.
