use of medical cannabis oil.

Dale Jackson is the owner of Jackson Services in LaGrange. Since purchasing Jackson Services with his partner and cousin Ben Jackson from their fathers in 2006, they have grown their heating and air business into the 5th largest Trane dealer in the southeast.

He is husband to Sarah, father to Camille (12), Colin (9), and Gavin (4). He is a founding member and advisory committee member of Sovereign Grace Church of LaGrange and in 2015, assisted in starting the first accredited private Christian special needs school in Georgia, Discovery Cottage.

He currently serves on the executive board of Kiwanis of Lagrange and is also a fellow Rotarian. He is on the Executive board of the Troup County Chamber of Commerce and is a board member of the Boys and Girls club of West Georgia. He is an overall supporter of Twin Cedars and an enthusiastic partner in education for the Troup County school system.

He served for four years as the 3rd Congressional District Republican Party Chairman. As well as serving as a delegate to the 2012 and 2016 National Republican Convention.

He has spent countless days at the Capitol in Atlanta over the past four years attempting to pass legislation in support of all special needs families around the state to have safe access to medical cannabis.
